

BE WHAT'S POSSIBLE

Need some help getting starting with your volunteer plan? Here are a few organizations with volunteer opportunities in New York City. Please reach out directly via the email address or link provided to get your planning started.

And don't forget to log your hours.

Happy volunteering!

God's Love We Deliver

Sign-Up Link Here

- Tasks may include packaging meals and assembling children's meal kits
- Deliver meals to our clients

City Harvest

Sign-Up Link Here

- Facilitate a two hour hands-on cooking and nutrition course for participants of all ages
- Prepare samples of a nutritious and affordable recipe for community members
- Help distribute produce to eligible market-goers

Bowery Mission

Sign-Up Link Here

- Help chefs prepare the day's meals for New Yorkers in need
- Help serve breakfast, lunch, or dinner to New Yorkers who need a meal

The Door

Christie Correa

ccorrea@door.org or (212) 453-0213

- Help young people create their very first resume or conduct mock interviews
- Organize The Door's 'closet' of donated clothing that will be distributed to under-served youth

Food Bank for New York City

Sign-Up Link Here

- Assist senior citizen members of our pantry; check out and bag groceries and restock shelves
- Help with pantry set-up, distribution, and organizing & clean-up

New York Cares

Sign-Up Link Here

- New York Cares helps meet pressing community needs at nonprofits, schools, and city agencies. There are opportunities for all interests and talents, from working on an urban farm to delivering food to those in need.